

The Remus Family of West Prussia:

Volume II Part I

The period around 1700 was not a good time for West Prussia. The Great Northern Wars taking place then led to warfare and destruction resulting in perhaps the loss of a third of the population. To repopulate their land (and generate profits), the Polish nobility sold the right to manage villages (called schultz privilege) and the right to mill grain to Germans. Thus, my ancestors entered West Prussia following the demobilization of the Saxon Army circa 1717. It is important to note that the Remus family of Kamenz were burgers (see the earlier section on Kamenz) and thus had some assets with which to acquire schultz privileges. This was the top tier of peasants although definitely superseded by the nobility.

The first reference to the schultzes and millers in Remus family in West Prussia was in August Blanke's "Aus Vergangenen Tagen des Kreises Schlochau" (1936) where Johan Remus was said to be a miller in Rogonitza, the mill for Bergelau, and to a lesser extent Pollnitz, Kreis Schlochau around 1700. The article goes on to explain that Johan Remus sold the mill to Andreas Rogosznicki around 1720. Otto Goerke's "Der Kreis Flatow" reports that Johan Remus purchased the schultz privilege and the schultzenhut in Lanken, Kreis Flatow in 1714 (that is, the right to administer a village and a manorial farm for the villagers to work on). The Johan Remus family also had the schultz privileg for Aspenau (Ossowo) in Kreis Flatow. An article by Walter Tesmer states that the Remus family was an old established family in the Kreis Flatow area by 1706.

Here are the members of Johan Remus and Christine Berent's family:

Christian Remus (schultz of Aspenau (Ossowo), Kreis Flatow)

Christoph Remus (schultz of Lukowo and later Waldowo, Kreis Flatow)

Johan Remus Burger in Preuss Friedland, Kreis Schlochau

Lorenz Christoph Remus (schultz of Lukowo, Kreis Flatow and later Gnielke, Kreis Wirsitz)

Martin Remus (schultz of Schwente, Kreis Flatow)

Peter Remus (schultz of Zbosse, Kreis Flatow)

There are clear links back to Kamenz, Saxony for these family as master miller Johan Remus was listed in the Burger Book for Kamenz as was cook Caspar Remus and Martin Remus.

This generation of the Remus family was largely schultz. Following a brief description of each man the genealogy of his family will be detailed. In part II of this book, I will detail a few other interesting families. Click here to move directly to part 2.

The Death of Johan Remus

As noted earlier, Johan Remus with his wife Christine Berent acquired the schultz privilege for Lanken, Kreis Flatow, West Prussia around 1714. They lived there for many years. The death of Johan Remus around 1750 led to major financial adjustments for the family. The schultz privilege in Lanken was initially lost as the estate was distributed. By 1775 Jacob Nehring had acquired the privilege; his wife was Eva Remus, the daughter of Franz Remus, Johan's brother (see below).

Schultz Christian Remus of Ossowo - Johan's Son

The Johan Remus family also had the schultz privilege for Aspenau (Ossowo) in Kreis Flatow, West Prussia. The inheritance settlement here is preserved in the land records of Kreis Flatow. The settlement was that son Christian Remus made payments to his widowed mother Christine Remus nee Berent as well as Christian's brothers (listed above) and thus was given sole ownership of an inheritable privilege on Ossowo. In the 1772 West Prussia Land Census for the village of Ossowo, it is noted in question 14 that Christoph has the Ossowo schultz privilege in his name. Click here to go to that genealogy.

Schultz Martin Remus of Schwente, Kreis Flatow - Johan's Son

According to Goerke's "Der Kreis Flatow," Martin Remus acquired the "Dorfkrug" (village inn) in Schmirdau in 1732 (although Martin probably managed the Krug prior to that). Funds were generated as Krug was later passed to his first son Caspar around 1751. Also funds came from the estate of his father Johan discussed above.

In Schwente the "Schulzengut" (the landed estate held by the village head) was acquired in 1751 by Martin Remus and his wife Katharina nee Nitz. In the West Prussia Land Census of 1772 for the village of Schwente, Martin complains that the soil in Schwente was sandy and they could not grow anything. He was also concerned that the schultz privilege in Schwente was not inheritable so could not be passed to his sons. The latter was remedied before Martin's death.

Martin's first son kruger Caspar Remus in Schmirdau is mentioned in the 1772 census as living with his wife, two hired male workers, and three hired female workers. When Caspar died, the Krug went entirely to the Caspar's eldest son Gottlieb. Caspar's other descendents did not have an inheritance and were farmers and shepherds including my great grandfather.

Martin's second son Christoph followed Martin as the Schultz of Schwente. Martin's third son was Lorenz Remus who moved southward to Bondecz, Kreis Wirsitz and his children to Bialobloty south of Poznan. Upon the eldest son Christoph's death, Martin's next oldest son Franz Remus became schultz but sold the land in 1796; Franz used the money from the sale of Schwente to buy the postmastership of Vandsburg, Kreis Flatow. Caspar's eldest son Gottlieb above briefly reacquired the Schwente privilege around 1805. Click here to go to that genealogy.

Schultz Lorenz Christoph Remus of Lukowo and Gnielke, Kreis Wirsitz - Johan's Son

Martin's brother Lorenz Christoph Remus was the village head (schultz) in Lukowo, Kreis Flatow, West Prussia for many years; towards the end of his life he moved to Gnielke, Kreis Wirsitz where he was schultz and owner of a schultzengut (village head's home). This family produced only a small number of children and grandchildren. So the Gnielke estate became associated by marriage with the Schlieper family (although the genes still have the Remus DNA in them). Remains of that gracious estate in Gnielke still remain to date. Click here to go to that genealogy.

Schultz Christoph Remus of Lukowo and Waldowo - Johan's Son

Martin's brother Christoph Remus was the village head (schultz) in Waldowo, Kreis Flatow, West Prussia after initially living in Lukowo with his brother Lorenz Christoph above. Christoph's son Johan Daniel was a

Kruger in Waldowo. This family largely migrated east into the next county, Kreis Tuchel. Click here to go to that genealogy.

Johan Remus - Burger in Preuss Friedland - Johan's Son

Johan Remus son of Johan Remus married Eva Halweg (daughter of schultz Andreas Halweg) and later Anna Boordt. They had many children, however, this Johan chose not to be a schultz or miller and instead lived part of his life as a burger in Preuss Friedland, Kreis Schlochau, West Prussia. For reasons unknown to me, most of the family migrated to Kreis Tuchel and there were largely farmers. Click here to go to that genealogy.

Schultz Peter Remus of Zbosse, Kreis Flatow - Johan's Brother

Peter Remus married into control of Zbosse, Kreis Flatow, West Prussia village around 1718 (a village which had a German and Lutheran presence and prayer house since 1620) and was the schultz of Zbosse. This he passed on to his son Peter around 1750. When the village burned in 1786, Peter Remus traded his privilege to control Zbosse to his uncle Peter Klawitter (whose wife was Susanna Remus was daughter of Lorenz Christoph Remus of Lukowo and Gnielke above). He gained Peter Klawitter's privilege for the krug (inn) in Bucholtz, Kreis Schlochau. Johan died young and thus this male line died out (although it lives on though Johan's sisters and aunts). Click here to go to that genealogy.

Schultz Franz Remus of Stegers and Stretzin - Johan's Brother

Franz Remus of Stegers and Stretzin in Kreis Schlochau, West Prussia is a brother of Johan Remus. Franz Remus is first found as owning a schutzengut (estate which he occupied as head of the village) in Stegers around 1730. For some reason, Franz gave up that privilege and acquired a lease on farmland in Stretzin; apparently he lived well and could be thought of as a gentleman farmer. He had many daughters that married well; for example, his daughter Eva married well into the Nehring family that took over the Lanken estate and his daughter Marie Elisabeth married Christian Friedrich Rotzoll of gut (manorial estate house) Rotzollen. At the close of his life, he passed on a small farm in Stretzin to son Michael and stayed in Rotzollen with his daughter Marie Elisabeth. He died there in 1797. The genealogy includes that the Rotzoll family. Click here to go to that genealogy.

Two Michael Remus Families of Millers

There were two Michael Remus families that lived in Pollnitz, Kreis Schlochau, West Prussia and were millers as were many of their descendents. Based on the records, my guess that they were related to Franz Remus above and Johan George Remus of nearby Bergelau. But I am not certain. I am certain that these families are related to the other Remus families by virtue of witnesses events like baptisms in other families and that one of the families has the same Y DNA as the other Remus families. These families moved on to Kreis Berent in West Prussia, Kreis Stolp in Pommern and eventually to North America. Click here to go to that genealogy.

The 1772 Census of West Prussia

Friedrich the Great of Prussia acquired the area to be know as West Prussia as part of the First Partition of Poland in 1772. Immediately he sent out agents to find out about the residents and their assets. His purpose was to tax them. As it was for taxation purposes, only the head of the household's name was recorded. This section therefore lists all Remus families in West Prussia in 1772 as well as what I know about them in 1772. Click here to go to that listing.

Schultz Christian Remus of Ossowo - Johan's Son

The Johan Remus family also had the schultz privilege for Aspenau (Ossowo) in Kreis Flatow. The inheritance settlement here is preserved in the land records of Kreis Flatow. The settlement was that son Christian Remus made payments to his widowed mother Christine Remus nee Berent as well as Christian's brothers (listed above) and thus was given sole ownership of an inheritable privilege on Ossowo. In the 1772 West Prussia Land Census for the village of Ossowo, it is noted in question 14 that Christoph has the Ossowo schultz privilege in his name.

Schultz Martin Remus of Schwente, Kreis Flatow - Johan's Son

According to Goerke's "Der Kreis Flatow," Martin Remus acquired the "Dorfkrug" (village inn) in Schmirdau in 1732 (although Martin probably managed the Krug prior to that). Funds were generated as Krug was later passed to his first son Caspar around 1751. Also funds came from the estate of his father Johan discussed above.

In Schwente the "Schulzengut" (the landed estate held by the village head) was acquired in 1751 by Martin Remus and his wife Katharina nee Nitz. In the West Prussia Land Census of 1772 for the village of Schwente, Martin complains that the soil in Schwente was sandy and they could not grow anything. He was also concerned that the schultz privilege in Schwente was not inheritable so could not be passed to his sons. The latter was remedied before Martin's death.

Martin's first son kruger Caspar Remus in Schmirdau is mentioned in the 1772 census as living with his wife, two hired male workers, and three hired female workers. When Caspar died, the Krug went entirely to the Caspar's eldest son Gottlieb. Caspar's other descendents did not have an inheritance and were farmers and shepherds including my great grandfather.

Martin's second son Christoph followed Martin as the Schultz of Schwente. Martin's third son was Lorenz Remus who moved southward to Bondecz, Kreis Wirsitz and his children to Bialobloty south of Poznan. Upon the eldest son Christoph's death, Martin's next oldest son Franz Remus became schultz but sold the land in 1796; Franz used the money from the sale of Schwente to buy the postmastership of Vandsburg, Kreis Flatow. Caspar's eldest son Gottlieb above briefly reacquired the Schwente privilege around 1805.

Schultz Lorenz Christoph Remus of Lukowo and Gnielke, Kreis Wirsitz - Johan's Son

Martin's brother Lorenz Christoph Remus was the village head (schultz) in Lukowo, Kreis Flatow for many years; towards the end of his life he moved to Gnielke, Kreis Wirsitz where he was schultz and owner of a schultzenhut (village head's home). This family produced only a small number of children and grandchildren. So the Gnielke estate became associated by marriage with the Schlieper family (although the genes still have the Remus DNA in them). Remains of that gracious estate in Gnielke still remain to date.

Johan Remus - Burger in Preuss Friedland - Johan's Son

Johan Remus son of Johan Remus married Eva Halweg (daughter of schultz Andreas Halweg) and later Anna Boordt. They had many children, however, this Johan chose not to be a schultz or miller and instead lived part of his life as a burger in Preuss Friedland, Kreis Schlochau. For reasons unknown to me, most of the family migrated to Kreis Tuchel and there were largely farmers.

Schultz Peter Remus of Zbosse, Kreis Flatow - Johan's Brother

Peter Remus married into control of Zbosse, Kreis Flatow village around 1718 (a village which had a German and Lutheran presence and prayer house since 1620) and was the schultz of Zbosse. This he passed on to his son Peter around 1750. When the village burned in 1786, Peter Remus traded his privilege to control Zbosse to his uncle Peter Klawitter (whose wife was Susanna Remus was daughter of Lorenz Christoph Remus of Lukowo and Gnielke above). He gained Peter Klawitter's privilege for the krug (inn) in Bucholtz, Kreis Schlochau. Johan died young and thus this male line died out (although it lives on though Johan's sisters and aunts).

Schultz Franz Remus of Stegers and Stretzin - Johan's Brother

Franz Remus of Stegers and Stretzin in Kreis Schlochau is a brother of Johan Remus. Franz Remus is first found as owning a schutzengut (estate which he occupied as head of the village) in Stegers around 1730. For some reason, Franz gave up that privilege and acquired a lease on farmland in Stretzin; apparently he lived well and could be thought of as a gentleman farmer. He had many daughters that married well; for example, his daughter Eva married well into the Nehring family that took over the Lanken estate and his daughter Marie Elisabeth married Christian Friedrich Rotzoll of gut (manorial estate house) Rotzollen. At the close of his life, he passed on a small farm in Stretzin to son Michael and stayed in Rotzollen with his daughter Marie Elisabeth. He died there in 1797. Franz and his daughters' genealogy is included in that of the Rotzoll family.

Two Michael Remus Families of Millers

There were two Michael Remus families that lived in Pollnitz, Kreis Schlochau, West Prussia and were millers - as were many of their descendents. Based on the records, my guess that they were related to Franz Remus above and Johan George Remus of nearby Bergelau. But I am not certain. I am certain that these families are related to the other Remus families by virtue of witnesses events like baptisms in other families and that one of the families has the same Y DNA as the other Remus families. These families moved on to Kreis Berent in West Prussia, Kreis Stolp in Pommern and eventually to North America.

The 1772 Census of West Prussia

Friedrich the Great of Prussia acquired the area to be known as West Prussia as part of the First Partition of Poland in 1772. Immediately he sent out agents to find out about the residents and their assets in this new area. His purpose was to tax them. As it was for taxation purposes, only the head of the household's name was recorded. This section therefore lists all Remus families in West Prussia in 1772 as well as what I know about them.

Collected Details from the 1772 West Prussia Land Census

Below are Reuben Drefs' translations of the Remus family data from the 1772 West Prussia Land Census. Information has also been added from Otto Goerke's Der Kries Flatow (DKF), Bernicke's Zeitschrift des Historischen Vereins für den Reg.=Bezirk Marienwerder (ZBS), and the Krojanke Tax Records. In each case you have the Last Name, First Name, Town, Amt, County, Film Number, Section Number, and page Number. In this document, the data is organized by geographical area.

Zempelburg Area (Waldau 1765 population 153 Catholics, 246 Lutherans)

Remus, Christoph	Waldau	Cammin	18113047 6039	227	51
Remuss, Christoph	Waldau	Cammin	18113047 6041	115	51(duplicate)

Christoph Remuss is living with wife (Eva Meske), two sons (Martin and Franz), three daughters (Marianna, Eva and Christine); there are seven in household. Christoph is listed under a column labeled Halbbauern/literally half farmer. So he had some other work and farmed half time. Christoph was the father of Daniel (below).

Most of his older children were born in Vorwerk Lukowo, an extension of the village of Sypniewo that he managed until about 1744 when he began to move to Waldau. Lukowo has a lovely lakeside location that is 3.5 kilometers east of Sypniewo. Christoph also had responsibilities in the village of Ossowo where the land was in his and his descendant's name (see Ossowo below). He was the son of Johan Remus and Christine Behrent (see Lanken below). In 1749, Ludwica Dzialynski of Sypniewo owned the land.

Daniel Remuss	Waldau Cammin Zempelberg	18113047 6041 115 51 (duplicate)

Johan Daniel was living with wife (Dorothea Runk), two daughters (likely Marianna Elisabeth and Anna Dorothea), and two hired male farm workers. He was a kruger - a tavern keeper - and also farmed. He was born in Lukowo, see his father Christoph Remus above.

Remus, Peter	Waldau Cammin	18113047 6039	227	51
Remuss, Peter	Waldau Cammin	18113047 6041	115	51 (duplicate)

Paechter des Vorwerks, Peter Remus; living with wife (Barbara Juliana Zyck/Pufal), three sons (my gggrandfather Daniel, Christoph, and Johan Georg), one daughter (Anna Maria), two hired male workers, and three hired female workers. There were a total of 11 in household. Peter died in 1778 and his wife Barbara married Johan Christian Grugel of Insdorf (Doringsdorf?) in nearby Konitz Parish.

Paechter des Vorwerks means renter of an extension of the village some distance from the village. Since his sons were all shepherds, perhaps the latter living arrangement may reflect being shepherds. Peter was the son of Johan Kaspar of Smierdau below. Peter appears as a godparent in the church books of Sypniewo for a birth in Vorwerks Lukowo.

Vandsburg Area

Remus, ? Zbojen Cammin 18113047 6039 244 2580
Remus, ? Zbosen Cammin Flatow 18113047 6041 123 2580 (duplicate)

Zbosse was a very early place in West Prussia to become both German and Lutheran. There was a Lutheran prayer house in Zbosse as early as 1620; it was disestablished in 1714 by Polish law. DKF lists a Peter Remus getting schultzenprivileg for Zbosse in 1718. The details are in LDS microfilm 491232 that shows a copy in German of a 14 June 1718 document. Peter is buying the Schultzprivileg and the estate Lehmanngut from his brother in law Martin Gieus; Martin Gieus may be from the prominent Gieus family of Danzig that had land holdings in the area or Martin Gies of Kries Schlochau. Johan Jacob Potulicke owned the property.

The above Peter is the father of the Peter in the census. The Peter in the census received the above property plus 4 farms in this village and 8 farms in nearby Wissoka from his father on 18 January 1748. This privileg is shared with Peter Scharmer. Alexander Pottlice owned the property.

The Zbosse church book names Peter Remus as the Schultz during this period. The census says that the Schultz (Peter) was living with wife (Catharina Thoms), two sons (Johan Ludwig and Peter), three daughters (Dorothea Elisabeth, Anna Marie, and Catharina), five hired male workers, and three hired female workers; there were fifteen in household. This Peter is not the same Peter shown for Waldau above. The Germanized village name Zbosse is probably from the Polish Zboze meaning grain.

Remus, Johann Wantzburg Cammin 18113047 6039 221 48
Remus, Johann Wantzburg Cammin 18113047 6041 112 48 (duplicate)
Johann David Remus, son of Lorenz Christoph Remus (see Schwente below), is living with his wife (Rosina Busse) and one son (?). There were three in household. He is under the heading Burger/citizens followed by word -cker, which could be the word Acker/farmer (one who has acreage). He was also a magistrate in Wantzburg.

Hoppa, ? Kl. Wollwitz Cammin Zempelburg 18113047 6041 122 58
Hoppa, ? Wollwitz Cammin 18113047 6039 240 58 (duplicate)
This family consists of a man (Caspar), a wife (Barbara Elisabeth Remus daughter of Peter Remus the elder of Zbosse), three sons (one of which is Peter), one daughter (Eva Rosina), two hired male workers, and one hired female worker. There are nine in household. The two other sons may be Peter's contemporaries Daniel and Johan located in a nearby parish (Prust).

Ramus Runowo Grabionne - 11 - 220
This family consists of the head of household ((Johan) Adalbert Remus), his wife (variously listed as Magdalena, Anna, Dorothea and Elisabeth), two sons (Martin born 1770 in Wiele and ?), two daughters (Christina born 1761 in Czarnum and Elisabeth born 1772 in Roscimin), two hired female workers and two hired male workers. In 1775 Adalbert and Dorothea had twin daughters Dorothea and Elisabeth in Roscimin.

Crojanke Area (near Flatow)

Remus, Casper Smierdau Crojanke 18113050 6039 390 28

Casper was living with wife (second wife Ludovica/Louise), six sons (3 over 12 years old (Michael, ? and ?) and 3 under 12 years old (Johan, Adalbert, and Gottfried), one hired male worker, and one hired female worker. There were ten in household. ZBS (p. 60) says the "Dorfkrug" was acquired by Martin Remus on 18 November 1749 and later passed to his son Casper who was then living in Preuss Friedland. Martin probably was the kruger prior to 1749. The dorfkrug also included as much land as that held by a regular farmer. The tavern (krug) was located about one third of the way from Flatow to Vandsburg on the main road; it burned down around 1859. Augustin Dzialynski of Pottlitz owned the land.

Remus, Schulze Schwente Crojanke 18113050 6039 372

Schwente is a Germanized version of the Polish Swieta meaning holy hill; this refers to the tumuli (prehistoric sand mountain) near the center of the village. DKF (p. 295) says the Schulzengut was acquired on 2 August 1751 by Martin Remus and his wife Katharina nee Nitz. Martin's son Christoph Remus (who died in 1777) followed Martin Remus. Franz Remus, who sold the land on 24 March 1796, followed. Gottlieb Remus "Freikrüger aus Schmirdau" (see above - Caspar's son) bought the land back again briefly some time after 1804 and sold it again on 13 October 1806. Krüger means publican/tavern keeper.

The Schultz above is most likely Martin Remus living with wife (Katharina Nitz), two sons over 12 years old (Christoph and Franz), one daughter under 12 years old (?), another daughter over 12 years old (Helena), two hired male workers, and one hired female worker; there were nine in household. The Schultz for this census could also be his son Christoph. Franz later sold the privilege and took up residence in Vandsburg; it is Franz's family that is shown in DGB. Augustin Dzialynski of Pottlitz owned the land.

In the text of the 1773 Krojanke tax records report Schultz Remus' complaints about sandy soil which needed lots of compost and about the fact that his position of Schultz was not inheritable by his sons. This may have been why this Remus family left Schwente.

DKF associates this village with two simultaneous Schwente Frieschultz, Martin Remus from 1751 onward and David Wenski from 1732 onward; they both had large sections of land at the head of the village. Marianna Wenski (David's sister) married Lorenz Christoph Remus of Vorwerk Lukowo suggesting that Lorenz maybe may be the brother of Martin. Lorenz Christoph apparently had moved to a gut in nearby Vorwerk Gnielke just across the border by the time of the 1772 census (and died there).

Remus Lorentz Kleindorf/Dreidorf Grabionne 9 - 218

Lorenz Christoph Remus was formerly the Schultz of Lukowo near Sypniewo. Later in his life he moved to a gut (estate) in Gnielke near Dreidorf. This record shows him as head of household, with his wife (Marianna Wenski - see below) and one daughter (Christina). When he died the gut was inherited by Christina and her husband Johan Schlieper. Lorentz was most likely Martin's brother (see above).

Wenski, Daniel Schwente Crojanke 18113050 6039 372
David Wenski was Schultz (wife Sussanna Splittgerber) beginning on 4 January 1732. His son Daniel is shown in the census; he was living with wife (Anna Dorothea Tonn), 2 daughters (Susanna and Eva) and 2 male hired workers, and 2 female hired workers at the time of the census. It is likely that Daniel's sister married Lorenz Christoph Remus. (See Schwente and Waldowo). And see his ancestral village of Wusters in Schlochau below.

Remus, Freischulz Ossowo Crojanke 18113050 6039 386 24
DKF (pp. 284-285) says the Schulz of this village was a Remus as far back as 1706; the village was also known as Aspenau. The estate (Schultzengut) included the small lake known as Czarnice (czarny = black) - probably the Teufelsee or devil's lake - on the Schultzengut. This Frieschultz had 4 times the land allotment of the ordinary village farmer (bauer). Augustin Dzialynski of Pottlitz owned the land.

ZBS records that Christian Remus purchased this Schulzengut on 11 July 1754 for 2600 tymf by buying out the interests of his widowed mother Christine Beherent and his brothers. Thus, the schultzengut must have been in the name of his late father Johan Remus and this transaction was designed to settle the estate. Christian got an inheritable lease on the property on Ossowo.

The Freischulz was living with his wife (Anna Dorothea Warmbier), two sons over 12 years old (Johan and ?), one daughter under 12 years old (?), four hired male workers, and two hired female workers. There were 11 in the household. It is not clear who the Schulz was in Ossowo during the 1772 census; one would think the Schultz must be one of Christian's sons or brothers. The later Schultzes were Johan Remus (wife Eleanora Weis) in 1798 and his son Karl Remus (wife Clara Radies) after 1810. See LDS 491164 for Ossowo village in the Krojanke tax records.

Lanken in Kries Schlochau (modern Lakie) Johan Remus purchased an estate (Gut) in Lanken on 20 April 1724 for 3750 tymf (ZBS p. 13); his wife was Christine nee Berendt. Jakob Nehring acquired the gut on 24 March 1752 for 7000 tymf (ZBS p. 14); Johan Remus had died prior to this transaction. Jakob Nehring married Eva Rosina Remus, daughter of Frantz Remus of Stretzin below. So the Remus genes, if not the name, were still present. Deutsches Geschlechterbuch (vol. 140, p. 132) says Jakob was Frieschultz of Lanken in 1775; the Nehrings did not sell the schultzengut until 1799. Alexander Dzialynski of Pottlitz owned the land in 1724 and Augustin Dzialynski owned the land in 1752. The land census record for Jakob is:

*Naehring, ? Lanken Crojanke 18113050 6039 381 21
He presently lives in a household consisting of himself, one woman, three sons, one daughter, two hired male workers and two female hired workers. He is a schultze - mayor, magistrate, or collector for the ruler.

Schlochau Parish

The Remus family also was in nearby Schlochau parish even earlier than then they were in the Flatow, Lukowo, Schwente, and Vandsburg above.

Remus, Frantz Stretzin Schlochau 18113097 6041 757 60
Frantz was living with wife (Anna Catharina ?), 2 sons (Frantz and Michael), 1 daughter (Catharina), 4 male hired workers, and 3 female hired workers. Franz was born in 1711 and died in 1797. The 1782 to 1788 tax records show no Remus in this village. Stretzin has an old church built by the Teutonic Knights prior to 1500 and is not far from Lanken and Ossowo; the church records are at Preuss Friedland.

Remuss, Michael Polnitz Schlochau 18113097 6041 763 55
Michael was living with wife (Catherine Klotz), 2 sons (Johan Georg and Michael), and 2 daughters (Maria Elisabeth and Catherine). The Michael in the 1772 census is NOT the son of an earlier Michael in this village who had recently moved to Okiersk (see below). 1782 finds the later Michael of Polnitz paying taxes on 20 wild rabbits that he took.

Klawiter, Peter Bucholtz Schlochau 18113096 6041 743 42
Widower Peter Klawitter married Susanna Remus, the daughter of Franz Remus of Stretzin, in Buchholz. They moved to Zbosse and he became Schultz for the village (Susanna's likely uncle Peter Remus was the Schultz after 1718). The 1772 census found Peter Klawitter, Susanna, two sons (Martin and Johan), one daughter (?), two hired male workers, and one hired female worker; there were eight in household. Martin Klawitter became Schultz in Zbosse after his father Peter Klawitter.

August Blanke in his 1936 book on Kries Schlochau says that Peter Klawitter was originally the landlord of the tavern in Buchholz. Around 1783 Peter Klawitter exchanged the Buchholz Krug for the Zbosse Frieschulzengut (the village head's house) with the Remus family of Zbosse. Johan Remus became the Kruger of Buchholz and is so shown in 1791. So this Johan Remus is the prior Zbosse Schultzensgut resident Peter Remus' eldest son Johan Ludwig Remus (b. 1763). Why this swap occurred is not clear but it happened just after a fire badly burned the village of Zbosse.

Johan Ludwig Remus married Ann Koeppen. He soon died and Ann married Johan Halweg and later Andreas Janke. According to Blanke, this property in Buchholz remained in that family into the 20th century - that is, the property was lost to the Remus family.

Both of the following are Christian Freidrich Rotzol and his wife Marie Elisabeth Remus (daughter of Frantz Remus of Stretzin above):

Rotzol, Christ. Krojanten Schlochau 18113094 6041 664 2782

He presently lives in a household consisting of himself, one woman, 2 sons under 12 (Samuel and ?), one daughter above 12 (Margarete Elisabeth), one daughter below 12 (Anna Dorothea), and 4 hired male workers and one hired female worker. This village is Krojanken, Kries Konitz.

Rotzol, Christ. Powalcke Schlochau 18113095 6041 723 2589

He presently lives in a household consisting of three male workers and two female hired workers. He is an arrend - tenant of an estate. The estate owner does not live in this household so this is also Christian Freidrich Rotzol living in nearby Krojanten. This village is Powalke, Kries Konitz.

Wieckowski, Oberst von Wusters Schlochau 18113044 6041 41 16

He lives with his wife, two hired female workers and two hired male workers. No children and six in household. This head of household is listed as Eigentuer/owner. Daniel Wenski above in Schwente was from a minor Polish noble family that owned Wusters and was originally from Wienskowo. Oberst is the rank equivalent of Colonel. The Wenski branch converted to Evangelical Lutheranism and became Schultz for Schwente.

The following Remus families are not fully identified; there are no continuing records on them in their 1772 villages.

Remus, Johan Jakubowo Schlochau 18113094 6041 663 2783

Living with wife, 1 son over 12, 3 sons under 12, and one daughter under 12. In the 1772 census Johan is the only head of household listed in Jakubowo (Jakobswalde). This could be the estate (gut) on the road from Preuss Friedland to Peterswalde - and not far from Stretzin. Or it could be Jakubowo in Kries Konitz.

Remussin, Petron. Neukirch Schlochau 18113097 6041 766 2606

A woman living with 1 son over 12, 1 son under 12, 2 daughters under 12 and one male hired worker. This family was gone by 1788 when tax records find Martin Rotikowski occupying the farm where they lived (LDS 491206 p 622). Neukirch is near Konitz and Tuchel.

Tuchel Parish

The Remus family later moved to Tuchel parish; all are likely to be related to the above Remus family members.

Remus, Johann Wissoka Pulna Tuchel 18113124 6043 2457 18

There were 2 daughters under 12 (Christine and ?), one male hired worker, and 1 female hired worker. DG (vol 62, p 577) says this is Johan (Michael) Remus and his wife Eva Klotz; they were married in 1772. The daughter Christine is by his earlier marriage to Susanna. Both DG and the census say Johan was a shepherd. The Johan (Michael) Remus family later lived in the village of Komorz. This man is likely to be a son of Johan Remus of Lanken (see above). This village is near Wittstock (incorrectly shown as a Remus residence), Summin (see below) and Weilpin.

Remus, Michel Ockiersk Tuchel 18113128#131 6042 2540 734

Michel was living with wife, one son over 12 (?), 3 daughters over 12 (Eva Rosina, Barbara, and Catharine), 2 male hired workers, 1 female hired worker. This Michael originally lived in Pollnitz (see above) and migrated here around the time of the first partition of Poland in 1772. According to DG, this Michel was a muller (miller) in Wokerske (Ockeirsk) in 1776. An extension of the village was on a river suitable for a watermill.

Remus, Jacob Sumini Tuchel 18113123 6043 2453 34

Jacob lives with his wife (Marianne Hebal) and 3 sons under 12 (Jacob & ?). After the census, they had son Martin and daughter Catharina. Sometime after 1772, they lived in nearby Okiersk. Johan Jacob was the son of Michael of Okiersk above.

Gross Zirkewitz

Goltz, Friedrich Gross Zirkewitz Cammin 1811304760 6041 124 2581

Living with wife, yet to begat children in 1772. He was the father of Daniel Remus' wife.

Topola in the Netze district.

Remus Topola Grabionne - 12 - 221 Cammin Poland I 12 265

Living with wife, one son, one hired male farm worker. Says next to the father, either Schuster or it could be Schafer (shepherd) although it does not seem to go beneath the line enough to be a f. Grabbione is south of Wissek and a mile north of Wiessenhoele. This could be Martin Remus of Schwente's son Lorenz and wife Anna Troi.

Ramus Runowo Grabionne - 11 – 220

In town of Topola there is a Remus, no given name, listed as a Schaefer, He is living with a wife, one son and one hired male worker.

I ran across a second in the town of Runowo, a Remus that is poorly written. It may not have gotten into the database because of the poor writing. There is no given name, but he is living with a wife, two sons, two daughters, two hired male workers, two female workers. Ten in household.

Danzig

Christian Friedrich Remus and family moved to the Danzig area no later than 1769. He was the son of Frantz of Stretzin above.

Remus, Christ.	Parchau	Karthaus	18011009 6037 309 327(duplicate)

Christian Remus lived with his wife (Anna Dorothea Romer), one son (Johan Friedrich), one daughter (Maria Gottiebe) and two hired male workers; there were six in household. Parchau is the Polish Parchowo between Bytow and Sulecayno far inland from Danzig.

There was also Georg Remus, a medical doctor, who lived in Langfuhr just north west of Danzig. He seemed to be the last of the descendents of Pastor Martin Remus of Danzig that stayed around Danzig. The two candidates for Georg are:

Remus, Jacob	Suckschin	Oliva Kreis Dzg. Hohe	18011042 6037 621 1683

(Perhaps a misreading of his Christian name) One male A and one male B and one female A and two females B. I think the A refers to adults and the B to minors. Five in household. This village is Zuchcin or Sukowo in Dzg. Hohe near Oliva.

Reman, Gerge	Meistwewalde	Oliva	18011046 6036 371 3408

(Perhaps a misreading of his family name) There was one male over 12, one male under 12, one female over 12, and two females under 12. Thus, there were parents, a boy and two girls.

Also in the area:

Remus, Christ.	Salau	Oliva	18011045 6036 348 1710
Remus, Christ.	Salau	Oliva Kreis Dzg. Hohe	18011045 6037 717 1710

One male under A. one female under A. These are the adult marriage partners. No children. Christ Remus is also listed as a "Toepfer", the "o" being an umlaut. This village is probably Seelau in Kreis Neustadt near Oliva. The alternate name is Mielke's Bruch. In any case they attended Catholic Church in Gohra or Lutheran Church in Bohschau.

Remus, Adam Buccowitz Ossiek 18011048 6037 773 1740
This record seems to contradict the one below. This one says Adam Remus is living with a wife, one son and two daughters.

Reimus, Frantz Bankau Neuenburg 18113082 6041 305 2152
Living, with wife, one daughter under 12. Frantz Reimus is listed as a "Dorfkathen". I think this is day laborer, if I remember correctly.

Different form used: One male under a. one male under b. For females: one under a. two under b. I take this to mean that a. is the adult parent and b. is the children. Also it says this Mich. Reymus is an "Eigenth." or owner. After his name "Kruger" So he was brewer or had something to do with the tavern.

Census Notes:

LDS does not have these records. The only other place you could find them is in the Johann Herder Institute in Marburg, Germany or the State Archive in Marburg or the Scientific Institution library in Torun, Poland.

The number is a section number put on the page by the filming crew in 1962. It helps to clearly identity the names since there are so many names.

More detail for the above is provided by the March 1773 tax records of Krojanke district which is on lds microfilm 491164.

The Remus Family of West Prussia:

Volume II Part II

The period around 1700 was not a good time for West Prussia. The Great Northern Wars taking place then led to warfare and destruction resulting in perhaps the loss of a third of the population. To repopulate their land (and generate profits), the Polish nobility sold the right to manage villages (called schultz privilege) and the right to mill grain to Germans as discussed in the prior chapter. In addition Remus family members of lesser means entered West Prussia seeking land and freedom .

These Remus family members settled in different areas that the schultz and krugers. They were largely located further east of Kreis Schlochau, Flatow, and Wirsitz in West Prussia. If they had a little money they could acquired small sandy farms. If not, they would work as estate workers, day laborers and shepherds. The last was the most unpleasant and thus most available. Here is some information about life on the estates which are also called manorial farms.

Examples of the Villages of Estate Workers, Day Laborers and Shepherds Genealogy for Villages from Volume 1

This wave settled along the main road between Poznan and Danzig, largely in the relatively unsettled areas near Preuss Stargard and in the estates along the Vistula River in Kreis Schwetz and Kreis Tuchel. I will also include Bialobloty in Russian Poland and Skrzynia as they are representative of another kind of village. The villages are:

Skrzynia, Kreis Schwetz - a sandy little village where a farm could be acquired with very little money. Click here to see that genealogy.

Belno, Kreis Schwetz - an estate where the descendents of the Skrzynia residents worked on estates. Click here to see that genealogy.

Wollin and Gross Podel - two great estates in Kreis Stolp owned by the Puttkamer family. The Remus family there migrated to Wollin and Podel from West Prussia. They sought land but ended up as estate workers. Click here to see that genealogy.

Garden, Streeson, and Verchland - three villages in Western Hinterpommern where Remus people came directly from Saxony to work on estates. But soon left for America. Click here to see that genealogy.

Bukowitz, Kreis Schwetz - a haven for German free farmers in a county mostly filled with estates. Click here to see that genealogy.

Cekcyn, Kreis Tuchel - a relatively recent village created by subdividing a noble estate. Click here to see that genealogy.

Bialobloty - a Russian Poland village made with contractual arrangements with the nobility that owned the land. Click here to see that genealogy.

Braunsfelde near Friedeberg in the Neumark - another group of Remus families, many of which went to America. Click here to see that genealogy.

And lastly Anielowka and Beretstowitz in the Ukraine which was then occupied by Russia. Click here to see that genealogy.

I might note that many of the above people descended from Lutherans but intermarried with the Poles and became Catholic.

Skrzynia, Kreis Schwetz

Skrzynia, Kreis Schwetz is a sandy little village where a farm could be acquired with very little money (see family 4 for example). This Remus family apparently migrated to West Prussia with little money and in search of work.

Belno, Kreis Schwetz

Belno, Kreis Schwetz is an estate where the descendents of the Skrzynia residents worked on estates. See for example family 5 in the previous genealogy.

Wollin and Gross Podel, Kreis Stolp, Pommern

Wollin and Gross Podel were two great estates in Kreis Stolp owned by the Puttkamer family. Their DNA matches that of the other Remus families in West Prussia. The Remus family there probably migrated to Wollin and Podel from West Prussia. They were probably descendents of Michael¹ Remus. They sought land but ended up as estate workers.
